Mr. J. C. Kirk and family, who have spent the past year in Everett, have returned to Wells Valley.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

Charles E. Cook left for Chadwick, Ill., on Tuesday morning after a pleasant three months' stay at home.

County Treasurer Geo. B. Mellett has been confined to his home for several days by a serious attack of lumbago.

Miss Margaret Shepherd of New Concord, O., is visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Kendall.

The Three Springs correspondent in the Mapleton Item says, "our school is progressing nicely under the skillful management of our teacher Austin Peck."

La grippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just as good."

Miss Sadie Stewart of Harrisonville, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. H. Wible, in this place, returned home Sunday morning.

Mr. George Mills and daughter Lydia of Union township spent Monday night in McConnellsburg. George is now a member of the Royal Arcanum.

In writing up the obituary notice of ex-Sheriff John Hill last week, we placed his age at 68, but since learn that it was 75 years, 1 month and 26 days. His first wife was a daughter of the late Peter Morgret instead of Moses Gordon as was stated.

Mr. J. Tilden Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Sharpe of Bethel township, who are named as executors, were in town last Saturday probating the will of the late ex-Sheriff John Hill, and making arrangements for advertising the personal property.

The many friends of Charles T. Sloan, a prominent citizen of Buffalo, N. Y., and son of the late John M. Sloan near town, will be pained to learn that he is in very poor health. He and Mrs. Sloan are now at Southern Pines, N. C., in the hope that the climate there may be beneficial.

Mr. Charles Heeter of Three Springs, had been a great sufferer from pulmonary trouble. Last Wednesday he went down to Huntington to consult a physician, who told him that he could not recover. This fact so depressed him that he went home, dying the same night. He was a brother of Postmaster George Heeter at Saltville.

Clayton Arnold aged 27 years met with an accident at his home in Cumberland Valley, Bedford county, on Wednesday afternoon of last week that cost him his life. While turning a log on a steam saw mill located on his farm, his foot slipped and he fell across the saw, which went through his body just below the neck, his head and neck falling on one side of the saw and the remainder of his body on the other.
